MORNINGSIDE COLLEGE

NYLEN SCHOOL OF NURSING

Dear Student:

The Morningside College Nylen School of Nursing would like to invite you to the 39th Annual Maud Adams Nursing Research Day to be held April 14, 2021. The morning sessions feature a keynote address, student presentations, and will be held in a virtual format.

The Nylen School of Nursing at Morningside College will award a $1000 Nursing Scholarship to an incoming nursing student again this year. Students interested in pursuing a bachelor of science in nursing degree at Morningside starting in August of 2021 are eligible to apply. The recipient will receive $1000 toward tuition and expenses upon enrollment at Morningside College. The Nursing Scholarship will be awarded during the Maud Adams Nursing Research Day.

The scholarship criteria include the student's academic and co-curricular achievement and his or her potential for professional nursing practice. Enclosed is a Nursing Scholarship Application to complete if you are interested in applying for the $1,000 nursing scholarship. Return the completed scholarship application via email, fax, or mail to the Nylen School of Nursing by March 18, 2021.

The Annual Maud Adams Nursing Research Day begins at 7:30 a.m., followed by award presentations, our keynote address by our Alumnus/a of the Year Award winner, and student presentations. Please attend virtually and enjoy as many of the activities as you would like. The program is free.

To attend the event, please call or email to register by April 1, 2021. Contact us at 712-274-5156 or email kirschj@morningside.edu. If you would like to take a campus tour or visit others on campus, please let us know in advance.

Thank you,
